

PLEASE READ THIS INFORMATION BEFORE COMPLETING THE REGISTRATION FORM

This registration form is a legal document. Before a student can be registered in a school, a Student Registration Form must be completed in its entirety and signed by the parent or guardian, or by the student (if living independently).

The student registration form is used to enrol a student who is new to EIPS, or who is returning to the division.

The registration form is also used to record important information changes. This includes changes to:

- legal name of the student or parent/guardian
- legal relationship of parent/guardian to student
- decision to exercise francophone rights

STUDENT INFORMATION

Print the student's legal surname (last name) and given names below. These are the names on a legal document such as the student's birth certificate or adoption papers. If the student uses a different first or last name there is a space at the end of this section for "preferred names".

PARENT OR GUARDIAN RESIDENCY INFORMATION

If there are two or more parents or guardians, it is important to fill in each of the sections below, whether or not the parents or guardians are living together. A guardian is defined in section 20 of the Family Law Act, or in section 1 of the Child, Youth and Family Enhancement Act.

NOTE: It is very important that you indicate whether or not each parent/guardian is Roman Catholic or not Roman Catholic. Under the terms of the School Act, the residency status of a student is based on religion and where the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) live. A student is a "resident" of Elk Island Public Schools if at least one of the parents/guardians live within the boundaries of Elk Island Public Schools and is not Roman Catholic.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY ACT (FOIP)

Notification of Use. Please read and retain for your information.

Information in this form is required as part of the school registration process and is necessary and related directly to a school board's obligation to provide students with educational programming that meets their needs, to provide a safe and secure school environment, to protect the child's rights, and to determine eligibility for programming and funding. The information will be made available to employees of EIPS and the Board of Trustees, within the scope of their roles and responsibilities, to individuals working with children in schools, and to Alberta Education, on a need-to-know basis. Please read the information on the last page about the types of activities for which personal information is collected. The information will be used for authorized programs and activities that are a normal part of school life. We realize there may be occasions where you have concerns relating to the safety of your child with any of these uses of information. If this is the case, please contact the school your child attends.

All personal information is being collected and protected in accordance with the School Act and regulations thereto, the Constitution Act, the Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

When collecting personal information from individuals, the FOIP Act requires EIPS to provide information about: the legal authority and purpose of the collection, how the information will be used, and the contact information of the person able to answer any questions.

The information collected on the Registration and Student Information Form contains personal information as defined in the FOIP Act. This information is collected pursuant to the School Act, its regulations and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. This information is required in order to properly register your child within EIPS, and is related directly to the school board's obligation to provide students with educational programs that meet their needs, to provide a safe and secure school environment, to protect children's rights, and to determine eligibility for programming and funding. EIPS may also use the information on this form to provide students with specific recommendations about programs and services offered in the division outside the scope of traditional programming that may enhance or contribute to their educational experience.

Once the information is collected and compiled, EIPS believes the uses listed below are part of a vital, healthy and functioning school and participation of all students is important and encouraged. Here are examples of activities where the information may be used:

- the use of a student's name, photo and comments about the student in the school calendar, newsletter, yearbook, graduation book, or other school publication.
- the taking of individual, class, team or club photos for school purposes.
- the use of student names on artwork or other creative work or material of students displayed at the school.
- the use of student names in class lists, honour rolls, bus lists, graduation ceremonies, scholarship or other awards within the school or jurisdiction.
- the use of student names and academic information necessary for determining eligibility or suitability for provincial, federal or other types of awards or scholarships.
- the use of student names, related contact information and telephone numbers, for absenteeism verification and other school-related activities by staff and volunteers.
- the use of student names, addresses, parental and emergency contact information, for the provision of transportation services, or in the event of problems or emergencies.
- the taking of video surveillance footage on all school bus routes operated by Student Transportation in conjunction with the enforcement of bus rules and to promote the safety of all passengers and drivers.
- the taking of photos/videos of classroom or other school activities by the school system where the material will be used within the school.
- the taking of photos and/or videos of classroom activities, and their use by the media or other organizations where students are not interviewed or identified by name or face.
- where individual students are identified or interviewed and the material will be used outside the school, a separate and specific consent will be required. You will be contacted prior to this event taking place. Examples of this are permission to display outside the school written or graphic works created by your child, or a photograph of your child in a school-related activity.

Please note that photos and/or videos of school activities that are open to the general public may be taken by persons in attendance (i.e. parents videotaping school concerts) and used for purposes within and outside of the school.

If you have any questions regarding the collection and intended use of the information, please contact the FOIP Coordinator, Elk Island Public Schools, Sherwood Park, Alberta, at 780.417.8204 (toll free 1.800.905.3477). You may also contact the school principal.
